Children's Hospital Invites Community to Family Friendly Tree Lighting Event Kohl's Department Stores to Donate More than $32,000 to Children's Hospital, Navicent Health

MACON, GA (Wednesday, November 25, 2015) – The community is invited to join Children's Hospital, Navicent Health on Tuesday, December 1 at 6:00 p.m. for an annual holiday tradition, the lighting of The Children's Tree.

Jael Wallace, a four year old from Dublin, Ga. and a patient at Children's Hospital, Navicent Health will light the tree in honor of all of the hospital's young patients. The Mercer University Children's Choir will provide musical entertainment for the event. Representatives from Kohl's Department Stores will also present a donation of $32,622 to a Children's Hospital, Navicent Health safety program and provide giveaways for children and safety awareness information for parents.

Festivities will take place at the Medical Center, Navicent Health's Albert Luce Jr. heart Institute, located at the corner of First and Hemlock Streets. Guests may park in the parking lot at the corner of Hemlock and First Streets at no charge.

Since 2006, the Kohl's Cares® program has generously given over $386,000 to Children's Hospital, Navicent Health. The funds have enabled the establishment and growth of the "Kohl's Cares For Kids® Safety Zone" program, which promotes child passenger safety awareness and education.

Kohl's commitment to Children's Hospital, Navicent Health is made possible through the Kohl's Cares® cause merchandise program. Through this initiative, Kohl's sells $5 books and plush toys where 100 percent of net profit benefits children's health and education programs nationwide, including hospital partnerships like this one. Kohl's has raised more than $257 million through this merchandise program.
